MAIL, ONE YEAR,

The Chleago Convention. Next Monday, what is called by way of compliment a Democratic General Convention is to be held in our neighboring city candidates for President and Vice-Presi- is the monkey and which is the hear," of Chicago, for the purpose of nominating dent, to be supported at the November election. The convention was originally called to meet on the Fourth of July, but so much discord and antagonism manifesting itself in the ranks of the Democraey, it was deemed expedient to postpone it procrastination. The discords which raged so flereely on the first of June, are not yet harmoniously attuned by the advent of the dog star, nor have the angry factions ceased to clamor for their favorite candidates. The peace wing of the party have gained immensely by the delay, and it is now highly probable that a candidate representing the Vallandigham view of our national affairs will be chosen as their standard bearer. What that view is, is now tolerably well known to most people of war to restore the Union, with (he says) but indifferent success. Now let us try states called to adjust that which (they insist) cannot be adjusted by the stern arbitrament of the sword. We need not turn aside here to discuss the immense advantages which such an arrangement would give to the rebels, and the corresponding perils which it must inevitably bring to the Union cause. The evils are so obvious that he who runs may read. And some good Union people are wicked enough ito believe that it is for the very purpose of uiding the rebels in their dire extremity that the proposition of an armistice is urg- the copporhead convention is to be held, ed so vehemently at this time. All the world knows that neither Jefferson Davis nor the Confederate Congress has ever made the slightest advances towards peace that were not based upon separation and the acknowledgment of southern independence. Any state in rebellion car have peace any day she cleets by laying down her arms and respecting the constitution and laws of the land. And that she defies those laws and tramples upon

The prominent candidates at ipresent are General George B. McClellan, of Ohio: Governor Seymour, Millard Fillmore, and Judge Nelson of New York; James Gutherie, of Kentucky; Franklin Pierce, of New Hamp-hire; Judge Woodward, of Pennsylvania; Tom. Seymour, of Connecticut and one or two others of less prominence. General McClellan's friends are quite numerous and enthusiastic, and entertain strong hopes of their ability to nominate him. It is thought he did so little lighting while at the head of the Army of the Potomac, that he cannot be very objectionable to the peace faction, while his prestigo as a general will be sufficient to lure the soldiers who have the right of suffrage into his support. His friends are industriously at work for him. A tremendous mass meeting was recently hold in New York and there is to be a McClellen nigeting in Chicago next Saturday, which, it is hoped, will operate fovorably upon the delegates then assembled. Had the convention been held on the Fourth of July, as for President. at first proposed, McClellan would certain ly have received the nomination. But his stock has been rapidly sinking in the mar ket over since. The peace men do not hesitate to make open war upon him and declare that if he is nominated no patched his support. They want a flat-footed peace platform and an undisguised peace candidate to stand upon it, and will be satisfied with nothing else. What concessions and combinations may be made for the sake of harmony, romains to be seen. As for the other candidates, except Gov. at Chicago... ernor Seymour, their strength lies in their weakness. They are of those negative kind of men who are thought to mean well for the reason that they never did anything to displease any body. Messrs. Fillmore and Pierce have both been tried and acknowledged to be good Northern men with Southern principles. If our memory is not at fault, both the gentlemen were brought forward in the conventions which nominated them by Southern men. Fillmore signed the Fugitive State Act, the had sunk, and was continuing to sink, most edious measure ever enacted by an while into the cavity formed, black mud most odious measure ever onacted by an American Congress, and did other dirty work for the South, but for all that he only received some twenty votes for a re-nomination. In 1856 he ran on the Know-Knothing ticket far the presidency and earried the State of Maryland. How the foreign bern democracy of the land can be brought to his support is not so clear, although they have been taught to swallow almost anything that is regularly nominated and properly labeled.

As for Governor Seymour, he is without doubt the ablest man in the list and the best qualified to discharge the duties of Chief Magistrate if he could be elected. But he has failed to secure the delegates from his own State, and he gives his friends to understand that he is wholly indifferent soldier, the other day, he made the discovto the nomination. Indeed, so few of ery that it belonged to a woman. the delogates have been instructed that the shrowdest politician is left without sufficient data from which to form a relia-lin this city, August 21st, by Rev. It may come to that that a milk-andwater war man, like McClellan, may head the ticket and a rampant peace man, like Vallandigham or Tom Seymour, be put on CRANT, infant son of Henry and Margretta S. As far as the Union men of the couns try are concerned, they look upon the asuntil August 29th. But it is doubtful semblage which meets next week at Chiwhether anything has been gained by cago, with the utmost indifference. They care but little who may be selected as the standard bearer. They have made up their minds to elect Abraham Lincoln, and they will do it. No matter who carries the copperhead flag, there will be but little excitement this fall. Some few "democratic" orators may get frothy, but their noise will pass the people like the idle wind which they regard not. LECTURE To-Morrow Evening .- The lecture of S. M. Hewlett, Esq., in behalf of the Soldiers' Aid Society takes place to-morrow evening. It is to be hoped that our citizens will see to it that the treasury of the society is generously replenished by this lecture. The ladies are doing a noble work and should be freely nided and sustained in their labors.

DEATH OF GEORGE W. PLAYTER .-- Our readers will be pained to learn of the death of this gentleman at Memphis. His home was at Bradford in this county, from whence he enlisted in the hundred day service. He left his wife and four children, turning over his farm to the care of a hired man and went to serve his country, from motives of pure patriotism. He was a good man, universally respected, and will be sincerely mourned.

VEGETABLES FOR THE SOLDIERS.—The ladies of the Wisconsin Soldiers Aid Society are getting together a quantity of vegetables for Wisconsn men at Little Rock and Pine Bluff, Ark. They propose to send an agent down with them to see to their prompt and faithful delivery. Rock County has a good many men in that lacality, and can confer a great benefit upon them by contributing of such vegetables as they can easily spare. FROM GRANT'S ARMY. HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC

August 21.—Our losses at the Weldon Railroad on Tuesday afternoon were greater than heretofore reported. The number of prisoners taken by the rebels now amount 1500. It seems that our troops were surprised, many of them being under shelter tents at the time, trying to escape a heavy rain that had been falling for several hours previous. The rebels first appeared about noon, on the right of the road in front of the 3d division, 5th corps, but this was undoubtedly a feint, or for the purpose of feeling our lines. About 3 o'clock. in, they charged in heavy force between the 5th and 6th corps, succeeding in turning the thank of the former and capturing a large number of prisoners. This part of our line was forced back some distance, when the 9th corps which had been relieved the night previous by part of the 2d corps, came into the field and opened fire, checking the advance of the rebels and taking a few prisoners.

A heavy column of rebels at the same time charged on the left of our line west of the railroad, held by the second division under Gen. Ayers, which they broke and here they also took 500 or 600 prisoners of the regular brigade, which was commanded by Gen. Hayes, who is believed Our whole line was thus forced back with

Before dark our men were reformed and being reinforced a desperate charge was made to recover our lost ground, which was successfully accomplished, so that we held at night the line which had been taken from us in the afternoon.

Col. Earle is reported a prisoner, also Col. Hartshorn. Gen. Crawford was shot through the vest and shirt, and narrowly esemping capture; Lt. Clark of his staff shot in atm; Lts. Meade and Merrill. Capt. Smith of Gen. Crawford's staff had their horses shot while carrying their riders and rallying men of the various commands. The last named was a prisoner, but seeing a favorable chance made his escape. Capt. Doolittle of Col. Wheeler's staff, was ordered to surrender, when he getting furious at an epithet applied to him, seized a musket and bayoneted the rebel against a tree. Col. Wheeler's brigade, 3d division was flanked, when they faced to the rear, charged, and drove the rebels and took a number of prisoners.

The entire number of prisoners captured by us is about 230 and some stands of colors. Our loss is estimated at over 3,000. Nothing but skirmishing took place along the line to-day, both parties being busy entrenching themselves. A battle is looked for at any moment, as the enemy seems determined to reigain possession of the road while we are as determined to hold it. The prisoners taken belong principally to Beauregard's and Hill's corps. They are healthy, although clad as usual.

August 21, 6 A. M.—Considerable artillery firing has been going on on our left since 4 o'clock, and is at times quite brisk. No musketry can be heard, the distance from headquarters being too great.

Washington, August 22.—Passengers by the mail steamer from City Point bring a report that the 2d army corps successfully recrossed the James River on Saturday night, thus adding to the mystification of the rebels as to the intention of our movements.

Baltimore, August 22 .- The Point Lookout correspondent of the American sends the following intelligence: Large numbers of refugees from Richmond continue to arrive here. They report that a large force of infantry and cavalry under Gen. Lee in person, as having gone up the Shenandoah Valley to reinforce Gen. Early. They assert that this body of rebel troops number as many as forty thousand, their purpose being to secure the plunder that was captured by Early in Maryland, which they fear will be taken by the ad vance of Gen. Sheridan, and also to attack Washington or invade the North.

FROM SHERMAN'S DEPARTMENT

Louisville, August 22 .- On the 13th in front of Atlanta, the 15th Corps charged the rebel works. At the same time, | Carlin's line of skirmishers called upon the soldiers in the rifle pits to come over. About 200 leaned out and came into our lines amid the fire of the remaining rebels. pleased with it. Dr. Coryell says: "I Carlin then advanced a strong skirmish line, took possession of the ritle pits, and now hold them. They are within 300 yards of the enemy's works. NEW YORK, August 22.—The Commercial prints the following special:

Late advices from Defore Atlanta, via Nashville, state that the rebels have $5,000 troops at Atlanta, including 40,000 Georgia militia. Their works are high, with deep ditches, abattis and wire-traps. Gen. Sherman felt their lines to the extent of eighteen miles with the purpose of turning The Democratic electors of the county of Rock will their position, but thus far has been unmeet in Convention, by delegates, at the Court Room able to effect his object, their lines proving equally strong at all points.

New York, August 22.—The Tribune's have the most extensive arrangements with correspondent dated Atlanta, August 15th fruit growers, and in the proper season says that the rebelsare not likely to abandon their position here somedark night, and leave us to walk quietly into the town. The signs are all against it; and I no more enormous amount. Their wines far excel expect that we shall occupy Atlanta with- many of the imported wines both in puriout a severe struggle-perhaps a prolon- ty and exhilirating effects. Many of

No country over furnished such natural opportunities for defense; and not even Georgia has anywhere in its northern section land so rough and difficult in which to prosecute offensive warfare. It would extend too far the limits assigned to this letter to fully describe the situation. A daily account of operations is the most that I have the time to give. There never have been more than one or two points at most from which we could reach the city with our artillery; and since the 23 corps has been withdrawn from the left, and that position abandoned, I doubt if many shots or shells have been thrown into the "place.

Madison, August 22.—Adjt. Gen. Gay-lord's mission to Washington is proving ery successful.

Assistant Provost Marshal General Lo voll has received directions from the War department to give Wisconsin credit for 568 men. Of these, 216 men were mustered into new regiment, between the 12th of October and 9th of November, and will to credited according on the books of the Arctic Fire Insurance Company of Provost Marshal here.

The 4th district was deficient 382 men. After deducting that from the credit of the State at large, the remaining excess of 4,452 is directed to be apportioned to the different Congressional districts, as follows:

In addition to this, backed by the repre sentations of Provost Marshal Loyell, Adi Gen. Gaylord has succeeded in getting the enrollment corrected. Orders were received here to-day an communicated to the District Provost Mar shal to strike from the enrollment list all men actually in service who have been drafted or fernished substitutes, all aliens non-residents, men over age and permanently disabled, and report by the 21st of August. The quotas will be reduced to correspond. All towns should give this matter prompt attention. It is now supposed that Wisconsin will not have to furnish much over 12,000 men.

WASHINGTON, August 22.—An Army of the Potomac letter says: A German mechanic, who has been employed for over two years by the Confederate Navy De partment in the construction of <code>iron_clad</code> mington, N. Both these vessels are clad with iron four inches thick, and each carries four 21 nounders. There is an iron-clad building at Plymouth, N.C; her armor is twelve inches in thickness, and she is to be ready for sea in two months. She is to carry four 12-pounder guns, and is to be named the Albemarle. He also reports a new boat getting ready in Richmond—a four inch iron-clad.

FROM THE GULF.

New York, August 22 .- The New Orcans Era of the 14th has following from Mobile: "the steamer Keytonia, from Mobile Bay, arrived this afternoon. We learn by this arrival that the land forces of Gen. Granger are within 500 yards of Fort Morgan. The fact that the enemy does not fire is considered proof that the fort will soon surrender. Mortar and other batteries, with the gunboats, are ready to begin the bombardment as soon as the word is given. The surrender of the place s hourly expected "

The Charleston Mercury of the 15th says more combatants are ordered to leave Mobile. It was thought impossible for the garrison to hold out against Farragut.

FROM NEW YORK.

New York, August 22.—The increasing lemand from abroad for our governmen ccurities continue to enhance their price. A number of foreign houses have on hand arge orders for the 5-20's, and the 10-40's are likely to be in demand for European

Are our patriotic ladies aware that more gold is paid to Eurobe for these articles than there is paid for silks and satins, and these articles, too can be replaced so well with our own pure native wines? We called in a house on River street not long ago, and in the wine cellar we tasted of strawberry, Blackberry, cherry, and other wines, which to us tasted far ahead of the imported ports, sherries, &c.

In the June number of Harper's Monthly may be found a highly interesting treatise upon wine making. #### OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

The Chicago Convention.

Next Monday, what is called by way of compliment a Democratic General Convention is to be held in our neighboring city election. The convention was originally so much discord and antagonism manifesting itself in the ranks of the Democracy, it was deemed expedient to postpone it until August 29th. But it is doubtful whether anything has been gained by procrastination. The discords which raged so fiercely on the first of June, are not yet harmoniously attuned by the advent ceased to clamor for their favorite candidates. The peace wing of the party have gained immensely by the delay, and it is now highly probable that a candidate representing the Vallandigham view of our national affairs will be chosen as their standard bearer. . What that view is, is now tolerably well known to most people It is briefly this. We have tried three years of war to restore the Union, with (he says) but indifferent success. New let us try Peace.

They want an armistice declared on land and sea and a convention of all the states called to adjust that which (they, insist) cannot be adjusted by the stern arbitrament of the sword. We need not turn aside here to discuss the immense advantages which such an arrangement would give to the rebels, and the corresponding perils which it must inevitably bring to the Union cause. The evils are so obvious that he who runs may read. And some good Union people are wicked enough to believe that it is for the very purpose of ed so vehemently at this time. All the world knows that neither Jefferson Davis nor the Confederato Congress has ever made the slightest advances towards peace that were not based upon separation and the acknowledgment of southern independence. Any state in rebellion can have peace any day she elects by laying down her arms and respecting the constitution and laws of the land. And that was at first supposed, who is appointed to she defies those laws and tramples upon succeed Judge-Knapp, in the third Judithe constitution is the reason she is deso- cial Court of New Mexico, but Judge Sidlated by the ravages of civil war. But to ney A. Hubbell, of Burlington, Iowa, who return to the convention.

The prominent candidates at present are General George B. McClellan, of Ohio; Governor Seymour, Millard Fillmore, and Judge Nelson of New York : James Gutheric, of Kentucky; Franklin Pierce, of New Hampshire; Judgo Woodward, of Pennsi sylvania; Tom. Seymour, of Connecticut and one or two others of less prominence. General McClellan's friends are quite numerous and enthusiastic, and entertain strong hopes of their ability, to nominate him. It is thought he did so little fighting while at the head of the Army of the Potentiae, that he cannot be very objectionable to the peace faction, while his prestige as a general will be sufficient to Iuro the soldiers who have the right of suffrage into his support. His friends are industriously at work for him. A tremendous mass meeting was recently, held in New hoped, will operate fovorably upon the delegates then assembled. Had the convention been held on the Fourth of July, as for President. at first proposed, McClellan would certainly have received the nomination. But his stock has been rapidly sinking in the market ever since. The peace men do not hesitate to make open war upon him and declare that if he is nominated no patched up peace platform will inveigle them into his support. They want a flat-footed peace. platform and an undisguised peace candidate to stand upon it, and will be satisfied with nothing else. What concessions and combinations may be made for the sake of harmony, remains to be seen.

As for the other candidates, except Gov: ernor Seymour, their strength lies in their weakness. They are of those negative kind of men who are thought to mean well for the reason that they never did anything to displease any body. Messrs. Fillmore and Pierce have both been tried and acknowledged to be good Northern men with knowledged to be good Northern men with contly on the line of the Atlantic and Southern principles. If our memory is Great Western railway, near Wooster, not at fault, both the gentlemen were Ohio. All at once the embankment and brought forward in the conventions which nominated them by Southern men. Fillmore signed the Fugitive State Act, the most odious measure ever enacted by an American Congress, and did other dirty work for the South, but for all that he on ly received some twenty votes for a re-nonination. In 1856 he ran on the Know- erable difficulty will be experienced in fill-Knothing ticket far the presidency and ing it. earried the State of Maryland. How the foreign born democracy of the land can be brought to his support is not so clear. although they have been taught to swallow almost anything that is regularly nomina-

As for Governor Seymour, he is without doubt the ablest man in the list and the best qualified to discharge the duties of Chief Magistrate if he could be olected. But he has failed to secure the delegates: from his own State, and he gives his friends to understand that he is wholly indifferent. to the nomination. Indeed, so few of cry that it belonged to a woman. the delegates have been instructed that, the shrewdest politician is left without sufficient data from which to form a relinble opinion as to who the favored man will be. It may come to that that a milk-andwater war man, like McClellan, may hend the ticket and a rampant peace man, like Vallandigham or Tom Seymonr, be put on

As far as the Union men of the coun try are concerned, they look upon the assemblage which meets next week int Chicago, with the utmost indifference. They care but little who may be selected as the standard bearer. They have made up their minds to elect Abraham Lincoln, and of the dog star, nor have the angry factions they will do it. No matter who carries the copperhead flag, there will be but little excitement this fall. Some few "domoeratic" orators may get frothy, but their noise will pass the people like the idle wind which they regard not. The country is inspired with a stern resolve to preserve the government, to uphold the flag, and to vindicate the supremacy of the constitution and laws. And they are fully persuaded that the only way to accomplish this benign result, is to defeat the Chicago nominee whoever he may be,.

- The entry to Richmond, the general aspeat of things there, and the hotel matters have already been published as fully as is necessary. A note was addressed to the Confederate Secretary of state next day, Sunday, the substance of which is a mere expression of a desire to meet with President Davis and an interchange in views in order, if possible to bring about a cessations of hostilities? VISIT TO SECRETARY BENJAMIN.

Judge Oald returned saying, "Mr. Ben-jamin sends you his compliments, and will ANDREW JOHNSON, he happy to see you at the State Department."

We found the Secretary-a short, plump, oily little man in black, with a keen black eye, a Jew face, a yellow skin, curly black hnir, closely-trimmed black whiskers, and a pondrous gold watch chain-in the north west room of the "United States" Chatom House. Over the door of this room were its walls were hung a few maps and battle-plans. In one corner was a tier of plete set of the Rebellion Record, and a dozen numbers and several bound volumns of the Atlantic Monthly, and in the contro of the apartment was a black walnut table, covered with a green cloth, and filled with a multitude of "state papers." At this table sat the Secretary. He reseas we entered, and, as Judge Ould introduced us, took our hands and said:-

Mr. Benjamin occupied his previous seat at the table, and at his right, sat a spare, thin-featured man, with iron-gray hair and beard, and a clear gray eye full of life and vigor. He had a broad massive homes, I have felt I could risk my life to forehead, and a mouth and chin denoting great energy and strength of will. His face was emaciated and much wrinkled, but his features were good, especially his eyes—though one of them bore a scar, upparently made by some sharp instrument. He wore a suit of grayish-brown, evidently of foreign manufacture, and as he rose, I saw that he was about five feet ten inches high, with a slight stoop in the shoul-

"And there are at least four and a half millions of us left; so you see you have a work before you," said Mr. Benjumin, with a decided sneer. "We have no wish to exterminate you," answered the Colonel. "I believe what I have said—that there is no bitterness between the Northern and Southern people. The North, I know, loves the South. When peace comes it will pour money and means into your hands to repair the waste caused by the war; and it would now welcome you back and forgive you all the loss and bloodshed you have caused. But we must crush your armies and exterminate your government. And is not that already nearly done? You are wholly without money and at the end of your resources. Grant has shut you up in Richmond. Sherman is before Atlanta. Had you not, then, better accept honorable terms while you can retain your prespeople." THE PROSPECTS OF THE CONFEDERACY.

"Do you bring any overtures to him Jeff. Davis concludes a review of the military situation by saying: "So; in a military view, I should certainly say our position was better than yours." THE FINANCES VIEWED BY JEFF.

> As to money; we are richer than you are. You smile; but admit that our paper is worth nothing-it answers as a circulating medium; and we hold it ourselves. If every dollar of it were lost, we should, as we have no foreign debt, be none the poorer.—But it is worth something, it has the solid basis of a large cotton crop, while yours rests on nothing, and you owe all the world. As to resources, we do not lack for arms or ammunition, and we have still a wide territory from which to gather supplies. So, you see, we are not in extremities. But if we were,-If we were without money, without food, without weapons—if our whole country were devastated, and our armies crushed and disbanded-could we, without giving up our manhood, give up our right to govern our-selves? Would you not rather die, and feel yourself a man, than live, and be subject to a foreign power?" THE FORCES COMPARED.

Mr. Davis still looked credulous.

JEFP. REPUDIATES AN ARMISTICE.

"Well, suppose the two governments should agree to something like this: To go to the people with two propositions; say, peace, with disunion and southern independence, as your proposition-and peace, with union, emanci ation, no confiscation, and universal amnesty, as ours. Let the citizens of all the United States (as they existed before the war) vote 'Yes' or 'No,' on these two propositions, at a special election within sixty days. If a majority votes disunion, our government to be bound by it, and to let you go in peace. If a majority votes Union yours o be bound by it, and to stay in peace.-The two governments can contract in this way, and the people, though constitutionally unable to decide on peace or war, can elect which of the two propositions shall govern their rulers. Let Lee and Grant meanwhile agree to an armistice. This would sheathe the sword, and if sheathed once it would never again be drawn by this generation." "The plan is altogether impractible.

"No, sir; Mr. Lincoln did not authorize me to offer you any terms. But I think both he and the Northern people, for the sake of peace, would assent to some such conditions." "They are very generous," replied Mr. Davis, for the first time during the interview showing some angry feeling. "But amnesty, sir, applies to criminals. We have committed no crime. Confiscation is of no account, unless you can enforce it. And emancipation! You have already emancipated nearly two millions of our slaves and if you will take care of them, you may emancipate the rest., I had a tige and save the pride of the southern few when the war began. "OUR VISIT TO RICHMOND."

Edmund Kirks and Row Col. Jaques How they Got to Richmond land Saw Joff. Davis

From Edmund Kirk's account in the Atlantic Monthly of his visit to Richmond, we publish the following:

ON THE WAY TO RICHMOND.

After starting Mr. Gilmore and Col. Jaques, on the afternoon of July 16th, mounted on two raw-boned relies of Sheridan's great raid, and armed with a letter to Jeff. Davis, a white cambric handkerchief tied to a short stick, and an honest face—this last was the Colonel's—we rode up to the rebel lines. A ragged, yellow faced boy, with a carbine in one hand and another white hankerchief tied to another short stick in the other, came out to meet him?"

"Can you tell us, my man, where to find Judge Ould, the Exchange Commis-sioner?"

"Yas. Him and t'other Change officers is over ter the plantation beyond Miss Grovers. Ye'll know it by its hevin' nary door nur winder [the mansion he meant. They's all busted in. Foller the bridlepath through the timber, and keep your rag a-flyin', fur our boys is thicker'n huckelberries in the woods, and they mont pop ye, of they didn't seed it."

Thanking him, we turned our horses in to the "timber," and, galloping rapidly on, soon came in sight of the deserted plantation. Lolling on the grass in the shade of the windowless mansion we found the Confederate officials. They rose as we approached; and one of us said to the -u courteous middle aged gentleman, in a Panama hat and a suit of spotless white drillings—

"We are late, but it is your fault.

Your people fired at us down the river, and we had to turn back and come over-flag."

No. It was hidden by the trees; but a shot came uncomfortably near us. struck the water, and ricochetted not three yards off. A little nearer, and it would have shortened me by a head, and the colonel by two feet.

"That would have been a sad thing for you; but a miss, you know, is as good as a mile," said the Judge, evidently enjoying the "joke."
"We hear that Grant was in the boat that followed yours, and was struck while at dinner, " remarked Captain Hatch, the Judge's adjutant-a gentleman, about the best looking man in the Confed-

looks asked for an answer. We gave none, for all such information is contraband. We might have told him that Grant, Butler, and Foster examined their position from Mrs. Grover's house-about four hundred yards distant-two hours after the rebel cannnon ball danced a break-down on the Lieutenant General's dinner table.

CONVERSATION WITH OFFICERS.

In the course of conversation with some troops and noncombatants, and all the questions which have lod to the susponsion of exchanges, had been good naturedly discussed, when the Captain, looking up from one of the Northern papers we had brought him, said:

"Do you know, it mortifies me that you don't hate us as we hate you. You kill us as Agassizkills a fly—because you love crucified for love of the South."

"Of course we do. The North is being crucified for love of the South."

"If you love us so, why don't your let us go?" said the Judge rather curtly.

"For that very reason—because we love you. If we let you go with slavery, and your notions of "empire," you'd run straight to barbarbar and the devil." "We'd take the risk of that. But let me tell you if you are going-to-Mr. Davis with any such ideas you might as well turn back at once. He can make peace on no other basis than independence. Recognition must be the beginning, middle and ending of all negotiations. Our people will accept peace on no other terms? "I-think you are wrong there, said the Colonel. "When I was here a year ago, I met many of your leading men, and they all assured me they wanted peace and rounion, even at the sacrifice of slavery. Within a week a man you love and venerate met me at Baltimore, and be-sought me to come here and offer Dr. Davis peace on such conditions."

"That may be. Some of our old men who are weak in the knees, may want peace on any terms; but the Southern people will not have it without independence. Mr. Davis knows that Concede

IN RICHMOND. The entry to Richmond, the general aspect of things there, and the hotel matters have already been published as fully as is necessary. Anote was addressed to the Confederate Secretary of state next day, Sunday, the substance of which is a mere expression of a desire to meet with President David and an interchange in views in order, if possible to bring about a cessations of hostilities.

VISIT TO SECRETARY BENJAMIN. Judge Ould returned saying, "Mr. Ben-

In one corner was a tier of shelves filled with books, among which I noticed Headley's "Listery," Lossing's "Pictorial History," Patron's "Butler," Greeley's "American Conflict," a complete set of the Recellion Record, and a dozen numbers and several bound volumns of the Atlantic Monthly, and in the contre of the apartment was a black walnut table, covered with a green cloth, and filled with a multitude of "state papers." At this table sat the Secretary. He rose as we entered, and, as Judge Ould introduced us, took our hands and said:

"I am glad, very glad, to meet you, gentlemen. I have read your note, and bowing to me "the open letter you bring Your errand commands my respect and sympathy. Pray be seat

"No, sir. We bring no overtures and have no authority from our government.
We state that in our note. We would be glad, however, to know what terms would be acceptable to Mr. Davis. If they at all harmonize with Mr. Lincoln's views. will report them to him and so open the door for official negotiation."
Are you acquainted with Mr. Lincoln's views?"

"One of us is, fully." "Did Mr. Lincoln, in ang way, authorize you to come here? " "No sir. We came with his pass, but not by his request. We say distinctly, we have no official, or unofficial authority. We come as men and Christians, not as diplomatists, hoping in a frank talk with Mr. Davis, to discover some way by which this war may be stopped."

Well gentlemen, I will repeat what you say to the President, and if he follows my advice-and I think he will-he will meet you. He will be at church this afternoon, so, suppose you call here at nine. this evening. If anything should occur in the meantime to prevent his seeing you. I will let you know through Judge Ould." VISIT TO PRESIDENT DAVIS.

After a day spent in our room, we called again at 9 o'clock at the State Depart-

Mr. Benjamin occupied his previous soat at the table, and at his right, sat a spare, thin-featured man, with iron-gray hair and heard, and a clear gray eye full of life and vigor. He had a broad massive forehead, and a mouth and chin denoting great energy and strength of will. His face was emaciated and much wrinkled, but his features were good, especially his eyes—though one of them hore a sear, ap-"Indeed! Do you believe it?"

"Indeed! Do you believe it?"

"I don't know, of course;" and his life wore a suit of grayish-brown, evidently of foreign manufacture, and as he rose, I saw that he was about five feet ten inches high, with a slight stoop in the shoulders.

RECEITION OF THE VISITORS.

His manners were simple, easy, and quite fescinating; and be threw an indescribable charm into his voice, as he extended his hand, and said to us - "I am glad to see you, gentlemen. You are very welcome to Richmond."

And this was the man who was Presirebel officers, the subjects of the treatment dont of the United States under Franklin of our prisoners, the status of blockade, Pierce, and who is now, the lieart, soul Pierce, and who is now, the heart, soul, and brains of the Southern Confederacy. His manner put me entirely at my case the Colonel would be at his, if he stood before Casar—and I replied—

"We thank you, Mr. Davis. It is not. often you meet men of our clothes, and our principle, in Richmond.

"Not often, not so often as I could wish; and I trust your coming may lead to a more frequent and a more friendly inter-course between the North and the South." "We sincerely hope it may."

THE SUBJECT OF PEACE INTRODUCED. "Mr. Benjamin tells, me you have asked to see mo, to"----And he paused, as if desiring we should finish the sentence. The Colonel replied Yes sir. We have asked this interview in the hope that you may suggest some way by which this war can be stopped. Our people want peace; your peo-ple do, and your Congress has recently said that you do: We have come to ask how it can be brought about." your armies from our territory, and peace will come of itself .-- We do not seek to subjugate you. We are not waging an offensive war, except so far as it is offensive defensive—that is, so far as we are forced to invade you to prevent, your invading us. Let us alone and peace will .come at once." But we cannot let you alone so long as you repudiate the Union. That is the one thing the northern people will not surrender."

"I know. You would deny to us what you exact for yourselves—the right of self-government."

"We'll not quarrel at all. But it is sundown, and time we were 'on to Rich' mond."

"That's the Tribune's cry?" said the Captain, rising; and I hurrah for the Tribune, for it's honest. most constant war between them?"

"Undoubtedly—with this generation.
You have sown such bitterness at the said to him—
"You've forgotten our parole."
"Oh, never mind that. We'll attend to that at Richmond."

South, you have put such an ocean of blood between the two sections, that I despair of seeing any harmony in my time.

Our children may forget this war, but South, you have put such an ocean of blood between the two sections, that I de-

"I think the bitterness you speak of, sir, "said the Colonel, "does not really exist. We must talk here as friends; our We follow in an ambulance: drawn by all soldiers meet and fraternize with each oth-pair of mules, our shadow—Mr. Jarvins or; and I feel sure that if the Union were —sitting between us and the twilight; and restored, a more friendly feeling would Jack, a likely darkey; almost the sole arise between us than has ever existed; survivor of his master's twelve hundred The war has made us know and respect each other better than before. enemy?

"You put the case too strongly. But wo cannot fight forever; the war must end at sometime; we must finally agree upon something; can we not agree now upon something; can we not agree now and stop this frightful carnage? We are both Christian men, Mr. Davis, can you as a Christian man, leave untried any means than may lead to peace "TTT" INDEPENDENCE OR EXTERMINATION."

"No. I cannot "I desire peace-as much as you do .- I deplore bloodshed as much as you do; but I feel that not one drop of blood-shed-in-this-war is on my hands; I can look up to my God and say this. I tried all in my power to avert this war. I saw it coming, and for twelve years I worked night and day to prevent it, |but I could not. The North was mad and blind; it would not let us govern ourselves; and so the war came, and now it must go on till the last man of this goneration falls in his tracks, and his children seize his musket and fight his battles, unless you acknowledge our right to self-government. We are not lighting for slavery—We are fighting for independence,—and that or extermination we will have."

"And there are at least four and a half millions of us left; so you see you have a work before you," said Mr. Benjamin, with a decided sneer.

"We have no wish to exterminate you," answered the Colonel. "I believe what I have said-that there is no bitterness be tween the Northern and Southern people.
The North, I know, loves the South.
When peace comes it will pour money. and means into your hands to repair the waste caused by the war; and it would now welcome you back and forgive you all the loss and bloodshed you have caused. But we must crush your armies and exterminate your government. And is not that already nearly done? You are wholly without money and at the end of your resources. Grant has shut you up in Richmond. Sherman, is before Atlanta. Had you not, then; better accept honora-ble terms while you can retain your, prestige and save the, pride of the southern pcople."

THE PROSPECTS OF THE CONFEDERACY Jeff. Davis concludes a review of the

As to money; we are richer than you are. You smile; but admit that our paper is worth nothing—it answers as a circulating medium; and we hold it ourselves. If every dollar of it were lost, we should, as we have no foreign debt, be none the poorer.—But it is worth something, it has the solid basis of a large cotton crop; while yours rests on nothing, and you owe all the world. As to resources, we do not lack for arms or ammunition, and we have still a wide territory from which to gather supplies. So, you see, we are not in extremities. But if we were,—If we were without money, without food, without wenpons—if our whole country were de-vastated, and our armies crushed and disbanded—could we, without giving up our manhood, give up our right to govern our selves? Would you not rather die, and feel yourself a man, than live, and be sub-roach me with any other."

When we went out Mr. Benjamin called been writing durbanded—could we, without giving up our

THE FORCES COMPARED. "From your standpoint there is force in what you say," replied the Colonel. But we did not come here to argue with you, Mr. Davis. We came, hoping to find-some honorable way to peace: and I am grieved to hear you say what you do When I have seen your young men dying on the battle-field, and your old men. women and children starving in their homes, I have felt I could risk my life to save them. For that reason I am here, and I am grieved, grieved that there is no

"I know your motives, Colonel Jaques and I henor you for them; but what can'I do more than I am doing? I would give my poor life, gladly, if it would bring peace and good will to the two countries: but it would not. It is with your own people you should labor. It is they who desolate our homes, burn our wheat-fields. break the whoels of our wagons, carrying away our women and children, and de stroy supplies meant for our sick and At your door lies all the misery and crime of this war-and it is a fearful, foarful account."

"Not all of it, Mr. Davis. I admit a fearful account, but it is not all at our door. The passions of both sides are aroused. Unarmed men are hanged and prisoners shot down in cold blood, by yourselves. Elements of barbarism are entering the war on both sides that should make you and me, as Christian men—shudder to think of. In God's name, then, let us stop it. Let us do something, concede millions, as Mr. Benjamin says you have, to hold out forever against twenty mill-ons.

Again Mr. Davis smiled.
"Do you suppose there are twenty millions at the North determined to crush

"I do-to crush your government. A small number of our people, a very small number, are your friends secessionists. The rest differ about measures, and candidates, but are united in the determination. to sustain the Union. Whoever is elected in November, he must be committed to a vigorous prosecution of the war."

Mr. Davis still looked credulous. JEFF. REPUDIATES AN ARMISTICE.

"Well, suppose the two governments should agree to something like this: To go to the people with two propositions; say, peace, with disunion and southern independence, as your proposition-and peace, with union, emanci, ation, no confiscation, and universal amnesty, as ours. Let the citizens of all the United States (as they existed before the war) vote 'Yes' or 'No,' on those two propositions, at a special election within sixty days. If a majority votes-disunion, our government to be bound by it, and to let you go in peace. If a majority votes Union yours to be bound by it, and to stay, in peace.— The two governments can contract in this way, and the people, though constitutionunable to decide on peace or war, can elect which of the two propositions shall govern their rulers. Let Lee and Grant meanwhile, agree to an armistice. This would sheathe the sword; and if sheathed once it would never again be drawn by this generation."

"The plan is altogether impractible. If the South were only one State, it might work; but as it is, if one Southern State objected to emancipation, it would nullify the whole thing; for you are aware the people of Virginia cannot vote slavery out of South Carolina, nor the people of South Carolina vote it out of Virginia."

"But three-fourths of the States can amend the Coustitution. Let it be done in that way—in any way, so that it be done by the people. I am not a statesman or a politician, and I do not know just how such a plan could be carried out; but you get the idon-that the people shall decide the question."

JEFF REPUDIATES MAJORITIES. "That the majority shall decide it, you

"I am not so sure of that. Neither current events nor history show that the impority rules, or ever did rule. The contrary I think is true. reintons of the would be hanged to the first tree, without judge or jury."

"Allow me to doubt that. I think it more likely he would be hanged, if he let the Southern people know the majority couldn't rule," I replied smiling "I have no fear of that," replied Mr.

Davis, also smiling good humoredly! "I give you leave to proclaim, it from every house top in the South." DIFFERENT KINDS OF MAJORITIES. "But, seriously, sir," said the Colonel, you let the majority rule in a single state why not let it rule in the whole country?" Because the States are independent and sovereign. The country is not. It is only a confederation of states; or rather it was; it is now two confederations." ... Then we are not a people—we are on ly a political partnership?

"That is all."
"Your very name, sir, 'United States,' implies that,' said Mr. Benjamin. 'But tell me, are the terms you have named— Emancipation, no confiscation, and universal amnesty—the terms which Mr. Lincoln authorized you to offer us?"
"No, sir; Mr. Lincoln did not authorize me to offer you any terms." But I think both he and the Northern people, for the sake of peace, would assent to some such conditions."

"They are very generous," replied Mr. Davis, for the first time during the interview showing some angry feeling. "But amnesty, sir, applies to criminals. We have committed no crime. Confiscation is of no account, unless you can enforce it.

And emancipation! You have already emancipated nearly two millions of lour slaves and if you will take care of them, you may emancipate the rest. I had "a" few when the war began. I was of some use to them; they never were of any to me. Against their will you 'emancipate' every negro: in the Confederacy, but we will be free! We will govern curselves. We will do it if we have to see every Southern plantation sacked and every Southern city in flames."... "I see, Mr. Davis, it is useless to continue this conversation," I replied; "and you will pardon us if we seem to press our views with too much pertinacity. We love iews with too much pertinacity. the old fing and that must be our apology for intruding on you at all.

A SUPERIOR REMEDY.

We can conscientiously, recommend to these suffer ing from a distressing cough, Dr. Strickland's Mellifid ons Cough Halsam. It gives relief almost instanta neous, and is withal not disagreeable to the taste There is no doubt but the Mellifluous Cough, Balsan is one of the best preparations now in use, and is all that its proprietor claims for it. We have tried it during the past week, and found relief from a most distressing cough. It is prepared by Dr. Strickland, No East Fourth street, Cincinnati, O., and for sale by Drug gists at 65 cents per bottle.

DIARRHEA AND DYSENTERY.

We have examined a great number of letters from some of the most prominent citizens of Cincinnati and Covington, etc., speaking in the highest terms of Dr. Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture, for the cure of diarrheea and dysentery. The letters are too long to publish. Mr. Woods, of Covington, says he was prononneed incurable by the best doctors in Cincinnati and one bettle of Dr. Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture offected a permaneut cure after suffering for months with the worst form of diarrhoa and dyson-

Another says he was discharged from the United States service after suffering in the hospital for eight months us incurable, and as a last resource tried Strickland's Anti-Cholers Mixture. He get well directly and has now enfered the army again in good health. One man writes he has cured seven or eight very bad cases of diarrhoa and dysentery in the barracks he was in with one bottle of this valuable media cino. In fact we could fill half our paper with similar items from these letters. Why does not our governmont secure this valuable preparation? Our army ought to be supplied with it. It is but a short time since one of our men lay in a very low condition a one of our Cincinnati Hospitals, his wife was nont for The doctors considered his case an hopeless case. She however, gave him Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture and in three weeks he was able to, return, home with his wife to New Richmond, C. All these cases right at home speak for thomselves. We hope all the sol diers will put a bottle of It in their knapsacks. It may save them or some of their comrades. It is for sale by Druggists at 65 cents por bottle.

After having played on the Piano of Messra. Knabe & Co., it is impossible not to hear testimony to their qualities, which have acquired for them the eminent reputation which they enjoy. The Pianes of their manufacture, on which I have played, are exceedingly remarkable for their qualities. The base is powerful without harshness, and the upper notes sweet, clear and harmoniously mellow, (chrystaline,) and I do not hositate to express in regard to these instruments my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal if not superior to the best manufactured in Europe or this country by the most celebrated makers. Signed, L. M. GOITSCHALK, feb20dawif D. D. Wilson, Janesville, Wis. Books & Stätionery.

CHEROKEE REMEDY

CHEROKEE!INJECTION! Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic tures all diseases of the urlnary organs.

33 It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, he does only being from one to two teaspoonfuls three imes per day.

Area It is diuretic and alterative in its action; puri fying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced diseases.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the Cherokee Remedy, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gleet, Ganorchea, Fluer Albus. Its effects are hosling, soothing and demnicont, removing all scalding, beat and pain, instead of the burning and almost unondurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

43- By the use of the CIERIOKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all inproper discharges are removed, and the wakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strongth.
